

Examination procedure in LBTU Based on the LBTU Study Regulation

1.1.31. 1.1.31. An examination – practical, written, oral or mixed (written and oral) assessment according to the study plan to check students' knowledge and skills by a lecturer or a commission of academic staff members in a particular study course.

4.2.5. 4.2.5. Examinations, tests and colloquium are held at the presence of a member of the academic staff or an authorized person. The study courses implemented in the LBTU e-learning platform contains online tests.

4.2.26. 4.2.26. An examination is allowed to be taken not more than three times. If the examination is failed, re-examination shall be taken not more than two times, charging a fee for repeating an examination. The third examination is taken at the presence of a commission consisting of three members of the academic staff of an institute based on the student's application for taking the exam. If a student's knowledge and skills are decided to be insufficient, the study course has to be repeated for an additional fee in relation the amount of CP.

* After receiving the application, the director of the institute delegates the responsible teaching staff to organize a commission of three teaching staff members. The responsible teaching staff informs the student about the date and time of the exam.